

Abstract

Title: Situations and problems of incipient tennis coaches

Objectives: The objective of the bachelor thesis is to analyze situations and psychosocial problems of incipient tennis coaches.

Methods: The study is conducted by qualitative form of research and by six personal case studies. The interviews with instructions were chosen as a method for data obtaining. All of them were recorded on audio recording device.

Results: I created four themes – circumstances and reasons for the commencement of coaching activity, merits of coaching profession, the most common problems of incipient coaches and aims of incipient coaches. All of them above mentioned are crucial for the adaptation of beginning coaches during a transition period from player's activity.

Keywords: tennis, coaching adaptation, the beginning of coaching, personality, children's training, coaching